BLACKLOCK MANCHESTER

You are sat NESTLED in the corner of a GRADE II listed TEXTILES Warehouse

At the turn of the 20th century, this building was a hive of British design and craftsmanship. As factory fans spun, local men and women led the way in producing the finest garments and furniture, in turn leading the export of British fashion and culture across the world.

THE CHOPHOUSE

“QUALITY, CIVILITY
AND

---

The Chophouse was born in London in the 1690s and swiftly established itself at the beating heart of towns and cities up and down the land serving a variety of different cuts of meat attached to the bone, for want of additional flavour, known as chops.

Beefsteaks, mutton chops and loins of pork were pared with potatoes, rarebits and good ale. Reliable and honest, the Chophouse was a welcoming home for all, whether languid lunches, high business or family feasts before the rise of Beefsteak houses saw their prominence decline.

THE BLACKLOCK WAY

“WE USE
THE WHOLE
ANIMAL
TO MAKE SOMETHING OF

---

Philip and Ian Warren care for the Blacklock herds in Cornwall. Each one raised sustainably living long, happy lives on beautiful moors grazing on lush Cornish grass. We use the whole animal to make something of everything and increase sustainability just as nature intended.

This means we farm less intensively in a regenerative way that is Climate Positive, minimising waste and ensuring the highest quality.

B CORP

We love running restaurants. It's our passion. But we're equally dedicated to being a company that has a positive impact more widely. For us, that starts with our people - be a great place to work and great restaurants should (with a bit of luck) follow - but also extends to how we look after our suppliers, communities and the planet.

We're proud to be a certified B Corp. We're far from perfect, but hopefully, we're on the right path to being a force for good and always looking to get better every day.

THE WARREN FAMILY

A chance ENCOUNTER, we'd be nowhere WITHOUT.

---

Our aim has always been to serve the very best meat and produce our fair land has to offer, whilst being kind to your wallet.

Before opening Blacklock, we travelled up and down the land in our quest to find the very best. From Yorkshire to Wales, Scotland to Dorset, we tried it all — before stumbling fortuitously on now lifelong friend, Matt Chatfield, a Cornish lad through and through. After a few beers he either liked our passion for chops or felt sorry we hadn't found what we were looking for and introduced us to father and son, Philip and Ian Warren.

Cornwall's oldest third-generation farmers and butchers, the Warren Family themselves have had one goal since 1880 — to breed the very best native and rare breed meat in the world. We hit it off straight away and after one taste of the good stuff, concluded our search was at an end!

For us, this is the best meat in the country from animals that are raised sustainably, the regenerative way, living happy lives on beautiful moors eating lush Cornish grass. Whether it's a lamb chop or a big steak, this meat has always puts a smile on our faces and we hope it does you too.

TROLLEY TALK

A trip to BLACKLOCK
wouldn't be complete without a visit from the COCKTAIL TROLLEY.

The cocktail trolley itself began from distinctly sober traditions in the early 1900s as housewives made afternoon tea and cake on their 'house-carts'.

That all changed with the end of the Prohibition era, when the ban on alcohol sales was lifted making way for the roaring 20s where sharp suits, excess and pomp were the order of the day and liquor replaced tea on trolleys up and down the US.

Later the cocktail trolley hit its heyday in the Mad Men era of the 60s where an afternoon livener in your Manhattan office between meetings on 5th Avenue was not just condoned but encouraged.

We would have gone well then so it's always felt special to wheel the trolley over and stir down a Negroni tableside in our crystal-cut tumblers.

BLACKLOCK IRONS

In truth, using
VINTAGE IRONS to cook our chops was something we stumbled upon by ACCIDENT.

For us, the perfect chop is one that is nicely caramelised from the charcoal grill and pink and juicy in the middle. Maybe it was just us, but before opening Blacklock we found cooking the perfect chop very tricky indeed.

We needed something very hot above and below to sear the chops quickly and without the budget to build a commercial George Foreman, and in the depths of despair, we joked "why don't we just sear them with those old granny irons?".

We got hold of a couple of vintage irons, got them smoking hot on the grill and placed them on the chops. The fierce heat from the iron and the grill worked perfectly creating a bubbling delicious crust on the outside with plush juicy meat in the middle. Hey presto - the perfect chop - and so it's what we've done ever since.

These irons were originally first made in the 1800s by the pioneering Blacklock Foundry in Tennessee. They burned down unfortunately and so given the irons are so instrumental and unique to everything we do, we thought it was a fitting name for our chophouse.
